DETENTION ORDER

On March 18, 2020, defendant THOMAS JOSEPH INTAGLIATA came before the court with counsel for a detention hearing on the motion of the government (Doc. 4) that defendant be detained until trial under the Bail Reform Act of 1986, 18 U.S.C. § 3142.

During these proceedings, defendant with the advice of counsel orally and voluntarily waived his right to a detention hearing knowing that a detention order would be issued based upon the bail report of the Pretrial Services Office recommending detention (Doc. 10), and knowing that this detention order will be reconsidered upon motion of the defendant.

Upon this record, the Court finds that, based on the record and the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g), there is no condition or combination of conditions of release that will reasonably assure that defendant will not flee or pose a danger to the community. 18 U.S.C. § 3148(b)(1).

Thereupon,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the motion of the government for the pretrial detention of defendant THOMAS JOSEPH INTAGLIATA (Doc. 4) is sustained. Defendant is committed to the custody of the United States Marshals Service until further order. This detention order will be reconsidered upon motion of the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that defendant be confined in a corrections facility, separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences, or being held in custody pending appeal. Defendant must be allowed reasonable opportunity for consultation with counsel.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that on order of a Court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the United States, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined must deliver defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
